

MARIELLE ANGELIQUE B. RACOMA

Antipolo City, Philippines

mracomaa@gmail.com

EXPERIENCE

Our Endangered PH - Founder

AUGUST 2019 - PRESENT

Leads an organization that is a growing atlas showcasing Philippine endangered species, promoting conservation through photography, storytelling, and research.

Animal Empathy PH - Communications Associate

AUGUST 2025 - APRIL 2026

Manages multiple social media platforms, writes articles, press releases, and reports, and conducts research on farmed animal welfare in the Philippines.

Haribon Foundation - Advocacy and Communication Officer

MAY 2024 - SEPTEMBER 2024

Worked as the documenter and photographer, managed social media accounts; produced, edited, and designed content, wrote captions, position papers, and other texts for internal and external communications.

Center for Energy, Ecology, and Development (CEED) - Advocacy, Networking, and Communications Program Staff

JUNE 2021 - JULY 2022

Managed social media accounts, spearheaded environmental advocacy campaigns, photographed events, wrote press releases and other texts for publicity, handled communications with media partners, and helped spearhead the Protect Verde Island Passage (VIP) network.

AWARDS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Ateneo Socio-Civic Engagement for National Development (ASCEND) Award

Special Recognition Award for Creative Sustainable Advocacy

Certificate of Appreciation - School of the Holy Spirit of Quezon City

Served as a Guest Speaker for an Earth Science talk

Certificate of Appreciation - Biobuild Project

Served as a Guest Speaker for a biodiversity campaign

PUBLICATIONS

Smithsonian Magazine

Online Feature in the 19th Annual Smithsonian Magazine Photo Contest (Natural World Category)

Asian Environmental Youth Network

Interview and Online Feature "Advocating for the Protection of All Species and their Habitats"

Animal Scene Magazine

Our Endangered PH Print and Online Feature "How A Thesis Led To Animals Capturing Someone's Heart"

Lever Foundation PH

Online Feature for International Women's Day 2025

EDUCATION

Ateneo de Manila University, Quezon City, Philippines

MAY 2020

Bachelor of Arts Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies with tracks in Psychology and Communication